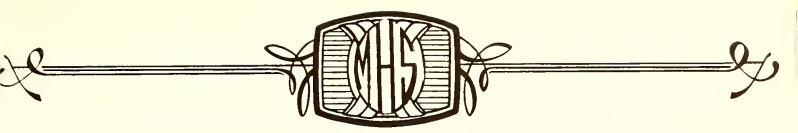
SENIORS

Last fall when the old school bell resumed its chime, we the class of 1948 once more gathered together our textbooks and proceeded back to Monroe High School for the final lap of our twelve year journey. After going through eleven years of struggles, we came back prepared for any obstacle which might attempt to hinder our progress. Now at the end of this great journey, we face the future with brains that are swelling with knowledge.

In this our last year, we have had both ups and downs. Somehow, the ups have always managed to overpower the downs and have carried us through with smiles on our faces.

To start the year off with a bang, we elected a full force of efficient class officers. For our chief executive we chose Charles Habegger in the office of president. As vice-president we chose Chester Hirschy who very ably managed affairs in the absence of Charles. Mildred Schwartz, who was elected secretary, was kept busy with minutes and records. Finally, we bestowed upon Vera Yoder, as treasurer, the headache of keeping the class funds out of the red and making both ends of the financial problem meet.



On November 11 and again on the 15th, The dramatists of our class were made famous through their production of a domestic comedy entitled, "Polishing Papa." The cast included Sidney Smith, a rich sausage manufacturer-Ernest Steury; Arthur Smith, eager to invest his dad's money-Donald Wittwer; Jane Smith, Arthur's sister, also possessed of illusions-Vera Yoder; Mrs. Stevens, housekeeper for Sidney Smith-Mildred Schwartz; Marie, a maid-Bonnie Christener; Samuel Karman, an advertising solicitor-Chester Hirschy; Dick Brainerd, a young attorney-Carl Nussbaum; Rose Parker, with whom Arthur is in love-Rebecca Nussbaum; Reginald Dabney, an English Lord-Weldon Nussbaum; and Pegey Sampson, a friend of the Smiths-Rosanna Sprunger.

Senior Class

[illegible]:

Choir 1 Kirkland; Choir 2 Monroe; Property M r. Class Play 3,4; Softball; Track 4; Annual Staff-Typist; Physical Education 1,2;

[illegible] B CHER, a jolly member of our class,
Goes to Willshire to see some sweet lass--
Which makes the Monroe Girls all gasp,
Because he thinks none of them will pass.

[illegible] CHRISTENNER:

Girls Glee Club 2,3,4; Choir 2,3,4; Senior Play; Annual Staff-Typist; Booster Club 4;

I wonder, Oh, I wonder!
For Poor John Burner's sake,
Can BONNIE CHRISTENNER make biscuits
Like my mama used to make?

BILL [illegible]SAM:

Softball 2,3,4; Track 3,4;

BILL [illegible]HRSAM, known as "Bill"
Takes his Physics with a will,
His black hair gives an impression fair,
But we hardly ever seem to see him care.

CHARLES HABGER:

Softball 1,2,3,4; Basketball 3,4; Track 3,4; Band 1,2,3; Quartet 2,3; Choir 2,3,4; President 4;

The words rang out as from a tomb!
Then all was silence--Then a Boom!
CHARLES HABGGER emerged from the gloom,
And we know that Waneta had sealed his doom.

CHESTER HIRSCHY:

Softball 2,3,4; Basketball 2,3,4; Band 2; Track 3; Class Play 4; Choir 2,3; Vice President 4; Sports Editor 4;

CHESTER HIRSCHY just sits and smiles and smiles
At Grace Fisher across the aisle.
"Oh dear," sighs Fisher, "It seems like a mile,
Why don't Knauff go to sleep for a while?"

RAY KAUFFMAN:

Vice President 3;

RAY KAUFFMAN, whose hair is red,
Must pick corn because hogs must be fed.
Going to school is his one big dread--
He can sleep in school, but he prefers a bed.

LEE MOSER:

Softball 2, 3,4; Basketball 3,4; Class Play 3; Track 4;

LEE MOSER, is a Senior lad;
He's not very good, he's not very bad.
Now, dates by Lee can be had,
But, "No, my son," says Lee's dad.

CARL NUSSBAUM:

Choir 1,3; Class Plays 3,4; Physical Education 2; Boys Glee Club 2,3;

CARL NUSSBAUM, a blonde, is by far--
Undoubtedly a bashful star.
Says he, "To Susie Q's, it's not very far--
Who cares if the battery is out of the car.

[illegible] Y NUSSBAUM:

Choir 1,3; Physical Education 1; Softball;

[illegible]

LEROY NUSSBAUM:

Choir 1,3; Physical Educationl, Softball;

Now, ELROY and LEROY NUSSBAUM are the wonder of our class,
They have a smile for every lass.
Handsome cavaliers are they,
And girls look twice, as they pass their way.

PAUL NUSSBAUM:

Band 1,2,3; Quartett 2,3; Basketball 4; Sport Editor annual 4; Track 4; Choir 2,3; Softball 3,4; Class Play 4;

PAUL NUSSBAUM, is not the only son,
His heart by Lonne Lou is almost won
His work at Monroe has been done,
We hope that sometime for Junior he'll run.

REBBACA NUSSBAUM:

Band 2,3,4; Choir 2,3; Girls Glee Club 2,3,4; President 3; Class Play 3,4; Sextette 3,4; Trio 4; Annual Staff-Typist 4;

REBBACA NUSSBAUM, the pride of our class,
She's a short, dark-haired, and beautiful lass.
Her grades are good; she's sure to pass--
Her choice is D. M. from the entire mass.

WELDON NUSSBAUM:

Band 1; Basketball 3,4; Softball 3,4; Quartett 2; Choir 2,3; Class Play 3,4; Track 3,4;

Remember WELDON NUSSBAUM, who played on the team?
His lessons were secondary, so it would seem.
Since Gladys fulfills his requirements as queen,
He wonders about as tho' in a dream.

BETTY ROUDEBUSH:

Girls Glee Club 2; Junior Class Play; Class Vice Presidentl; Class Treasurer 2; Choir 2;

Who always starts the arguments?
Who wouldn't trade Frank for dollars and cents?
BETTY ROUDEBUSH, is of course, the girl that's meant
Her assembly hours in playing are spent.

MILDRED SCHWARTZ:

Class Play 3,4; Class Secretary 1,2,3,4 Senior Reporter and Advertising in Annual 4; Booster Club 4;

MILDRED SCHWARTZ, with her big blue eyes,
Seems to accomplish whatever she tries,
She has no time for sobs and sighs,
But tackles her job, and keeps herself wise.

ROSANNA SPRUNGER:

Girls Glee Club 2,3; Class Play 4; Choir 2,3;

Another member of the Senior crowd
Is ROSANNA SPRUNGER, who's always loud;
Her spirit to others has never bowed;
She's one of which her George might be proud.

ERNEST STEURY:

Choir 2,3; Class Play 3,4; Softball 4; Boys Quartett 2,3; Annual Staff 4; Booster Club 4;

ERNEST STEURY, whom they call "Little One"
Is just loads of fun--
He talks, he whispers, he even chews gum,
But what can the teachers do, they don't carry a gun.

DONALD WITTWER:

Band 3,4; Choir 3,4; Class Play 3,4; Business Mgr. Annual 4; Class President 1,2; Track 3,4;

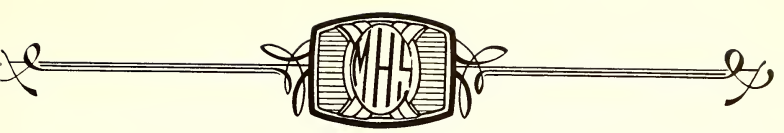
DONALD WITTWER , is the Greek god of the class;
For no better student could teachers ask;
With Jim Becky is first and last,
Why not? She's a very fine lass.

VERA YODER:

Girls Glee Club 2,3; Class Play 3,4; Treasurer of Class 3,4; Choir 2,3; Booster Club 4;

VERA YODER is short and neat;
To be her friend is quite a treat,
She's just as good as she is sweet--
Ask all her boy friends if she can be beat.

ON FEBRUARY 5, 1948, THE FOLLOWING STUDENTS APPEARED AS GUEST EDITORS ON "THE CITY DESK" PROGRAM; MILDRED SCHWARTZ, DONALD WITTWER, MILTON HABEGGER, GRACE LIECHTY, ERNEST STEURY. MR. BYRNES (PRINCIPAL), AND MRS. NEUENSCHWANDER (SPEECH INSTRUCTOR), ACCOMPANIED THE GROUP. DEMONSTRATING A NEW CAMERA IS BOB SMITH, JOURNAL GAZETTE STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER.



1948 CLASS PROPHECY

Two score less thirty years
The Class of '48 have picked careers.
Let's look into the crystal ball,
And see what has been done by all.

A church--by the road side,
A clergman--he's short and wide;
He's now coming through the door:
Who could it be? Rev. Becker! Forevermore!

Now who's this? Oh, its Bonnie;
She's now the wife of Johnnie.
Could there be a better pair
Who never have a trouble or a care?

Oh, Someone's caught for double parking,
Bill Ehrasm on his paper is marking,
Can't you see why he's on top?
Some how or other he became a cop.

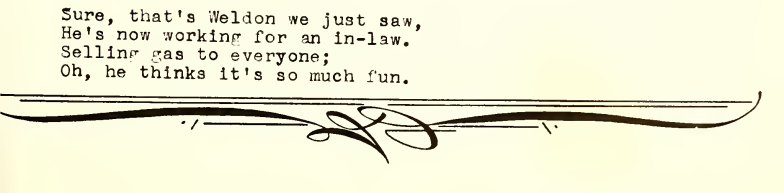
It's Charlie just as happy as can be
Well--he's shouting L. S. M. F. T.
On WGN we hear him daily
With his voice he sings so gaily.

"Mary, what's one plus two?"
Now that isn't much of a clue.
Ray Kauffman, remember him?
He's a school master, tall and slim.

Oh no, she's not a slop,
She's modeling in a Juvenile Shop.
You'd think she's some years younger;
She could be--it's Rosanna Sprunger.

Wow! look at that skater!
Let's come back and see her later.
Sure she's skilled in other sports;
Yes--it's none other than Mildred Schwartz.

Sure, that's Weldon we just saw,
He's now working for an in-law.
Selling gas to everyone;
Oh, he thinks it's so much fun.



Now the crystal ball begins to fade,
Success by each on has been made;
What next will happen only time will tell,
Now we bid you all farewell.

SENIOR WILL

Upon being doomed to end our days at Monroe High School, we, the Senior Class of 1948, do hereby make our last will and testament bequething our last scholarly effects to our most beloved teachers and to our dear friends, the Juniors. Being of our faculities we so generously grant to them the following:

To Mr. Byrnes, the "chief" during our final year, we will a brand new paddle for his use in the years to come.

To Mrs. Neuenschwander, we will a lifetime membership to the Ladies' Gossiping Society hoping she will hear more news to convey back to the students at M.H.S.

To Miss Lucas we will a tall, dark, and handsome man to make her life in Berne less boring.

To Miss Miller we will longer and more mushy love letters with the hope that she will continue reading them to her Home Economics Classes.

To Mr. Snyder we will a size 34 pair of pants in the hope that some day he will fit them.

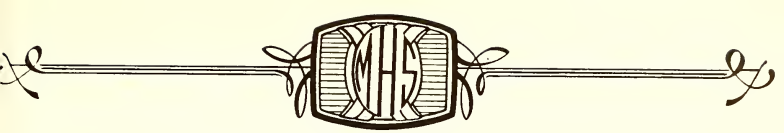
To Mrs. Byrnes we will a new pair of slacks to wear in her Latin Class in case the first pair wears out.

To Mrs. Ehrsam we will a new iron rod to keep order in her music classes, as we find the one in use now is depreciating.

To Mr. Knauff we shall not undertake the task of willing anything, as his needs are so numerous we do not know where to begin.

I, Norman Becher, do will and bequeth my wavy hair and 39 chevrolet to Paul Bradford.

I, Bonnie Christener, do will and bequeth my wagging tongue to Jeanette Schwartz.



I, Bill Ehrsam, do will and bequeth my hobby of collecting poker chips to Byron Liechty.

I, Charles Habegger, do will and bequeth my desire for a Studebaker to Waneta Neuenschwander.

I, Chester Hirschy, do will and bequeth my ability to flirt with that certain someone in school to Bob Zerby.

I, Ray Kauffman, so will and bequeth my ability to spend class funds for playing pool to Christine Sprunger.

I, Lee Moser, do will and bequeth my basketball ability to Bob Beitler.

I, Carl Nussbaum, do will and bequeth my success with women to Claren Lehman.

We, the twins, Elroy and Leroy Nussbaum, who do everything together, do will and bequeth our quiet nature to Dick Coppess and Carl Bauman.

I, Paul Nussbaum, do will and bequeth my ability to sleep in school without getting caught to Pauline Nussbaum.

I, Rebecca Nussbaum, do will and bequeth my matronly ways to Bertha Ray.

I, Weldon Nussbaum, do will and bequeth my ability to get our of class at the right time to Grace Liechty.

I, Betty Roudebush, do will and bequeth my ability to play "hooky" from school to Vera Inniger and my short hair to Mary Alice Steury.

I, Mildred Schwartz, do will and bequeth my ability to apply my intelligence to Bob Roth and some of my height to Derryl Lehman.

I, Rosanna Sprunger, do will and bequeth my deportment grades for Mrs. Neuenschwander to Milton Habegger and my robust ways to Donna Lou Crist.

I, Ernest Steury, do will and bequeth my ability to argue with Mr. Knauff to Gladys Zurcher.

I, Donald Wittwer do will and bequeth my ability of whispering to a certain someone to Kenny Funk.

I, Vera Yoder, last but not least do will and bequeth my girlish figure to Shirley Striker.

JOKES

Teacher: Why does the sun never set on the British Empire?
Kauffman: Because the good Lord can't trust him in the dark.

"Have you read "Freckles?"
"No, Ma'am, mine are brown."

Diner-Do you serve crabs here?
Waiter-We serve anyone, sit down!

Waitress: Did you order a honeymoon salad?
Bonnie: Yeah,"lettuce alone."

"Do you know what the 'Little Man Who Wasn't There' eats for breakfast?"
"No"
"Ghost Toasties."

Said the toe to the sock,
Let me through, let me through.
Said the sock to the toe,
I'll be "darned" if I do.

"That car sure is a bargain."
"On the level?"
"Sure, but not on a hill."

A young theologian named Fiddle,
Refused to accept his degree;
"For," said he, "Tis enough to be Fiddle,
Without being Fiddle, D. D."

"While you were in the hospital, did they put stitches in you?"
"No, I just pulled myself together."

"I saw your picture in the rogues' gallery, Butch."
"Yeah, I was framed."

Customer--Shave and massage.
Barber--I hear you have been going out with my wife.
Customer--Just a massage.

First Baseman-Come on "Lefty," hold him on.
Pitcher--You hold him on, you're closer.

Juniors

JUNIORS

Hop, skip, and a jump! Last September we juniors trotted gaily back to school to display our wisdom or perhaps ignorance would be a better word. After adjusting ourselves to the long grind we elected class officers as follows: President, Pauline Nussbaum; Vice-President, Gladys Zurcher; Secretary, Milton Habegger; and Treasurer, Dick Coppess. Our class sponsor is Mr. Knauff.

In april we presented the class play "But Fair Tomorrow" under the direction of Mrs. Neuenschwander.

The twenty-seventh of April was an important day. We juniors played host to the seniors at the Junior-Senior reception.

Our class enjoyed several parties during the year.

By the time May rolled arround and the report cards made their last appearance, we were glad to see enough credits to return as seniors next year.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

After struggling through the many hardships of the Freshman year, we have at last gained the distination of being sophomores. We did nothing startling in our Freshman year but have become renowned through our excellent behavior and scholarly abilities.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year we elected the following officers President, Doyle Lehman: Vice President, Virginia Habegger: Secretary, Darleen Yoder: and Treasurer, Curtis Nussbaum. Miss Miller is our class sponsor, whose pride and joy is her new car.

The sophomores engaged in some very worthwhile activities this year including the selling of magazines and Bearkatz pins.

We enjoyed two class parties this year and are looking forward to more in the future.

Our second year is now at an end and we look back with pleasure to those years not altogether spent in throwing paper wads and writing notes. However, in spite of these things we look eagerly forward to our next two years in which old M.H.S. will know Who's Who.

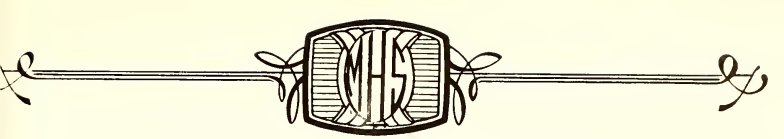
HIGH SCHOOL STUDIES
VOLUME ONE



FRESHMEN

We are fortunate in being Freshmen because we envy the upper classmen and sympathize with ourselves. We are an exception to most Freshmen because we aren't in the least "green"! We are thirty-five members in our class.

At the start of the year we elected the following class officers which proved to be very efficient. Our President is Donald Haines; Vice-President, Beverly Lobsiger; Secretary, Irene Schwartz, Treasurer; Diana Crist. Mr. Byrnes, our teacher and principal, is our worthy class sponsor.

We participated in a contest with the Sophomores to see which class could sell the most magazines. Although the Sophomores beat us by a wide margin it helped raise the Freshmen class fund.

We have had one class party this year and that was a skating party at "Sunset" in Decatur. We are planning to have another party before school is ou which we are sure will be as much fun as the first one.

We went on a field trip to the New Sentinel building in Fort Wayne. We all enjoyed it very much and found ou how our news-papers, which we read daily, are printed.

Most of us are planning to be seniors and graduate from Monroe High School in "51".

BASKETBALL

The year of 1947-1948 has not been to successful as far as winning games has been concerned, but we have mastered many things that we feel has developed more character than just winning games. There were five Seniors on the squad: Weldon Nussbaum, Lee Moser, Chester Hirschy, Paul Nussbaum, and Charles Habegger.

The team won 8 and lost 14 games for their season's record.

SECONDS

The seconds have accomplished almost the same record as the first team. They are players that will help the future teams of Monroe High School. For their season's record the seconds won 8 games and lost 10.

SOFTBALL

The team as a whole had a good year, they had a lot of fun in softball and baseball. They won 6 and lost 2 games in softball and won 1 and lost 1 in baseball.

There were six seniors on the regular squad; the rest of the team was made up of under classmen. Seniors were as follows: Bill Ehrsam, Chester Hirschy, Weldon Nussbaum. The underclassmen were: Claren Lehman, Milton Habegger, Byron Liechty, who are Juniors. Sophomores: Robert Ehrsam, Doyle Lehman, Glen Rowdon. Freshman: Charles Huffman, Demetri Hendricks, Don Haines, Gerald Nussbaum.

Here's hoping that the team has a better season and more luck in sports next year.

6. Commencement.

A button is a small event that is always coming off.

Despondent--Another drink and things will look different.

Give some people enough rope and they'll skip off with your wife.

Warden--I've had charge of this prison for ten years. We're going to celebrate, What kind of a party do you boys suggest?
Prisoners--OPEN HOUSE.

"Why do sailors use knots instead of miles?"
"To be sure the ocean's tide."

"Why do you always flirt with the waitress?"
"I'm playing for big steaks."

"Do you know why New York has no FOG?"
"No."
"They use skyscrapers."
